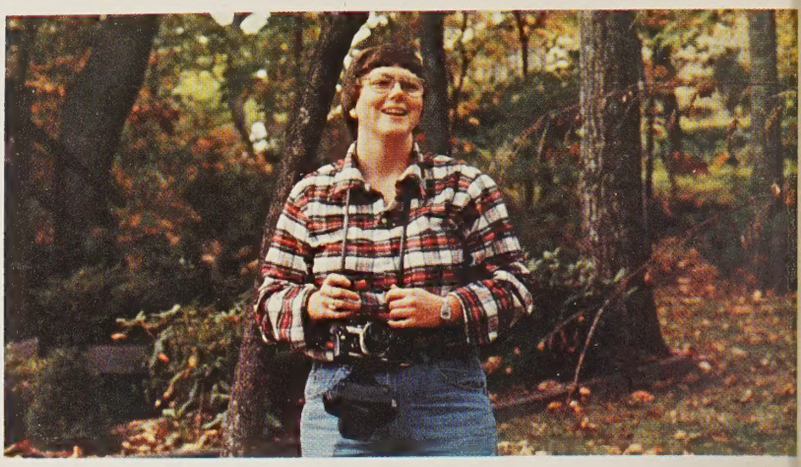
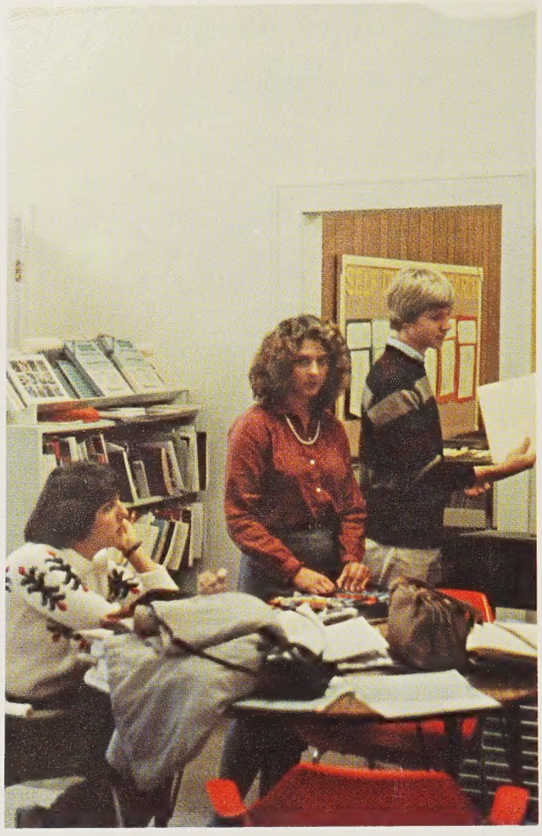
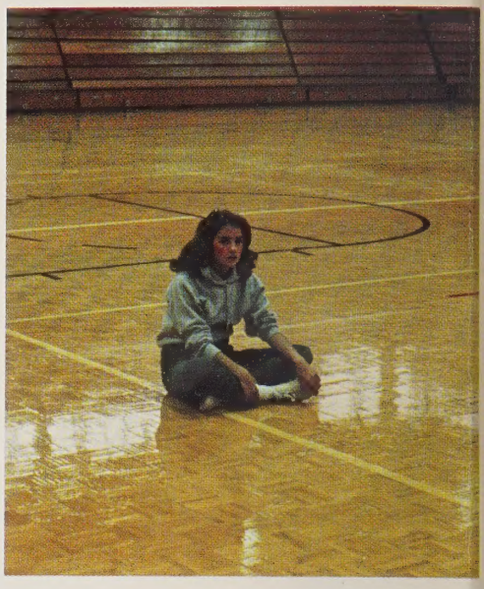
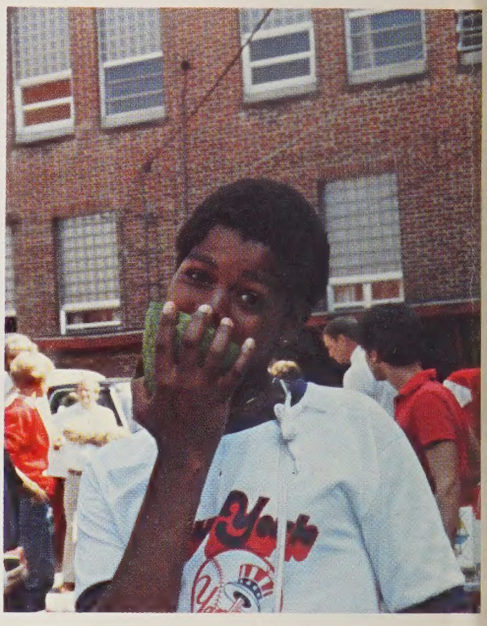
EXPRESSIONS



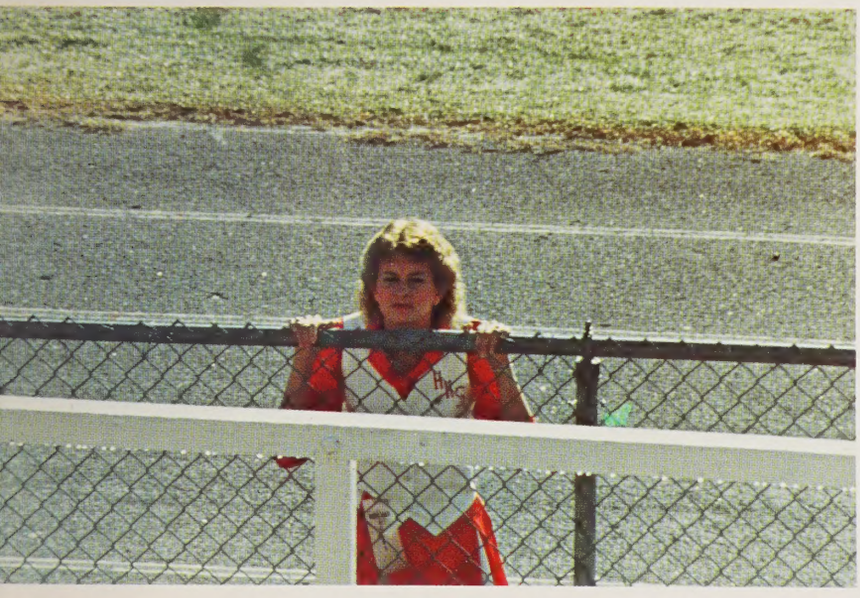






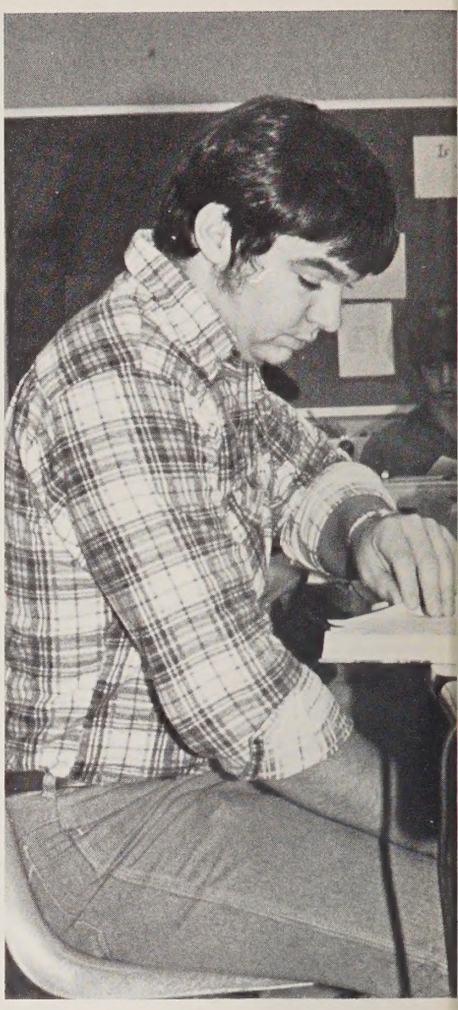
EXPRESSIONS . . . sometimes puzzled, thoughtful . . . often disappointed, confused, lost . . . more often joyous, thankful . . . but always proud and determined.

Each expression . . . a part of us . . . a part of Hendersonville High School . . . Sharing . . . whether student, teacher, parent, or administrator . . . these expressions with each other . . . and . . .



Realizing . . . there is something we cannot quite understand, but it's there . . . something Binding us all together . . . one Expression of that "Touch of Class". Radiating from HHS.

HHS — hats off to YOU!



Hendersonville is a town of color and expression nestled in the mountains of the south. It is a town of special people, buildings — old and new, historic sights, and of course, that pleasant southern hospitality that is so inviting.

Our town has changed immensely over the years. Our people have adapted to these changes through the years, and they show their individuality through their changing expressions.

At Hendersonville High, each individual works to contribute to the school. Whether the contribution is shown by putting up posters for a Friday night game, by participating in the band shows, or simply by attending a Bearcat ball game, the actions of each individual are expressions of pride in our school — Hendersonville High School.

Most of our lives are spent wishing we had done things differently. We might wish we had studied harder for Mr. Franklin's chemistry exam, gotten more involved in school activities, or pushed ourselves just a little harder to bring the B+ up to an A−.

We may not realize until it is too late that we've spent too much time dwelling on past mistakes and too little time enjoying the present. The past may not have seemed like much then, but looking back, we probably will yearn to be there once more. Through the years, acquaintances may be forgotten, but only for a short while, as thoughts of HHS bring them back into focus.

As we look around us, we notice the different people, and we find that through the expressions of all those involved at HHS . . .

Here we are, finally, after four long hard years. We are classified "SENIORS." But if we think really hard, we can remember ourselves . . .

As Freshmen . . .

We expressed our discontent and inferiority through "survival dancing," Senior book carrying, milk carton pushing, and tricycle riding. We were characterized as "wide-eyed" and "green." The girls dreamed of the Senior men and the guys experimented with the "older women." "Fiddler on the Roof" was the Senior play.

As Sophomores . . .

We began to show some amount of self-confidence. American History was the topic of the year, the local hangout was Patton Park, and we were slowly growing up. Getting that Driver's License was the most important thing in the world. "Sugar" was the Senior play that year.

As Juniors . . .

We were really moving up in the world. We were close to the top of the ladder and we knew we were finally SOMEBODY. Class rings were ordered and anticipated. PSAT's, competency tests, and Mrs. Roberts' English classes were struggled through. "Mr. Scrooge" was the Christmas play, and the place to be was Jump-off. Some of us even participated in the "Great Flower Raid" before Junior-Senior.

NOW that we have made it to the top of that ladder, we still have a few stumbling blocks left. We will never forget about TE's English papers, SAT's, and placement tests. We cannot take for granted class competition. We still get excited enough to buy victory ribbons, yell at pep rallies and anticipate victory for the Croft Cup. We feel that sense of pride when painting the Senior steps for our class, and we create, during the Senior play, those memories never forgotten. This is our year, a time in our lives in which our expressions of pride, confidence, anticipation, and finally relief are cherished and remembered forever.

WE ARE THE CLASS OF '82.

Miss Laureate

1982

Bonnie Caldwell

The Laureate Staff respectfully dedicates the 1982 yearbook to Mrs. Sharman Norman in appreciation of her patience, warm understanding, and personal interest displayed toward students and teachers. As sponsor of the Keywanettes, she has spent much time with the girls in both work and play, and has made the Keywanettes one of the most respected organizations at Hendersonville High School. It is rare to find a person who exhibits the character and personality that Mrs. Norman demonstrates to all who come in contact with her.

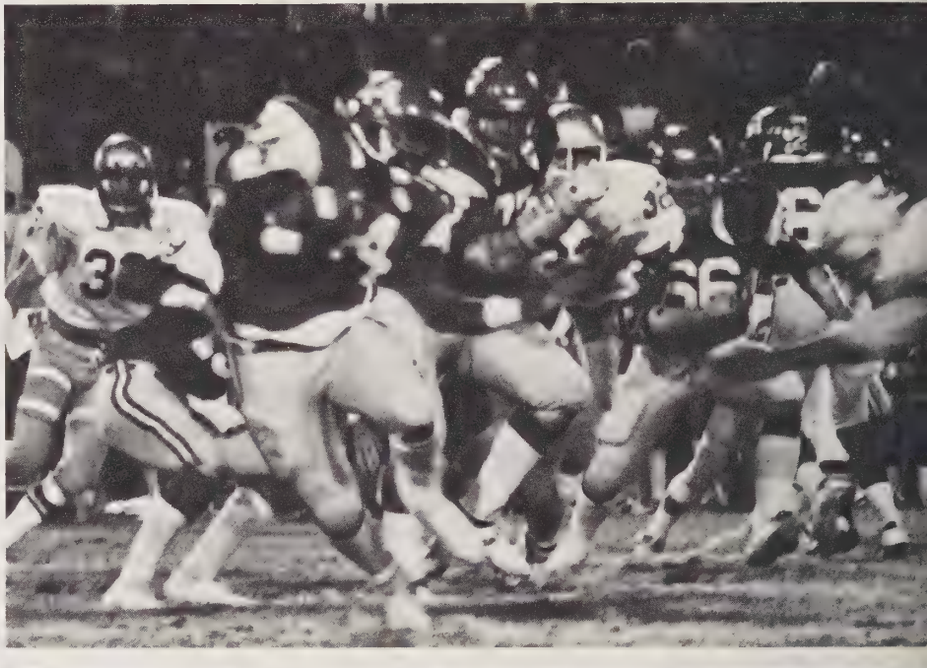
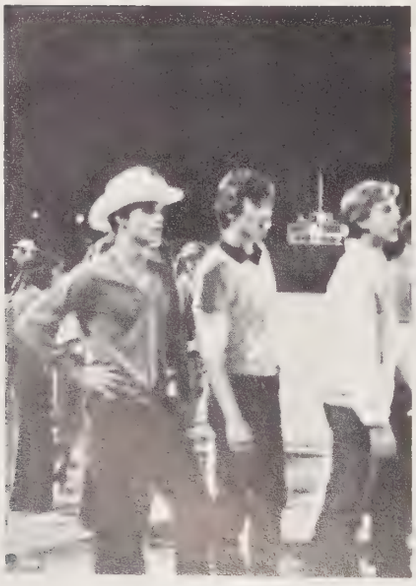
FEATURES

HOMECOMING WEEK



This year's Homecoming Week at H.H.S. was filled with exciting activities every day. Students who sold three or more magazines were taken to see a movie, and the high-selling homerooms were treated to a pizza lunch. The Senior-Sophomore team was victorious in the annual powderpuff game, and by the end of the week people had taken off their masks and were letting their true punkish selves show through. Friday was Red and White Day, and that night the Bearcats played the Owen Warhorses. Saturday night the Student Council sponsored the Homecoming Dance, which a great many attended. Overall, Homecoming Week '81 was a big success.

POWDERPUFF



Tuesday was the culmination of practice between the Senior-Sophomore girls and the Junior-Freshmen girls in the annual powderpuff football game. The Senior-Sophomore team dominated, winning 14 to 8. The fans were entertained during half-time by the powderpuff band, and Stella Sherman was crowned Queen.

Each year, the yearbook is made possible by the hard-working, talented group of people who make up the Laureate Staff. The work begins early in the summer — pictures are taken and new ideas are discussed. The theme and cover must be decided on as well as original layouts for each section. During football season, the staff sells victory ribbons to promote school spirit as well as raise money to help finance the Laureate. The staff also sponsors the annual Powderpuff Football Game during Homecoming Week. Every fifth period, the members collaborate on decisions concerning the various sections of the Laureate. Deadlines are a very hectic time in the Laureate room. The last-minute copy and search for the perfect picture cause much confusion. Even through the frustration and distress, we enjoyed working with Betty Oates and staff in producing the Laureate this year.

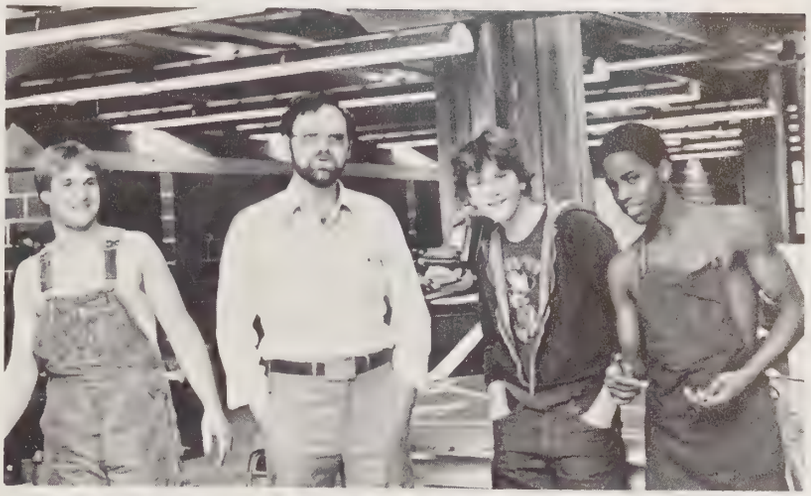
Expressions . . .



We are able to express ourselves most through our activities. Our extra-curricular involvement supplies each of us with an outlet from which we can express with freedom, our own individualism. We can forget the heavy burden of responsibilities and indulge ourselves in what we enjoy doing. That frustration can be set free on the flute or the cymbals, or exhausted through movement during Drama. We can enjoy being together and helping others in the Key Club or Keywannette Club, or we can expand special interests in the French Club or Spanish Club, Computer Club, or VICA Club. Our involvement reflects our expressions.

Acreage — Residential — Commercial

Dear Graduates:

Ever Since the early American settlers bought land for 2 cents an acre, real property has provided the largest single means for the accumulation of individual wealth. Nobody ever gave any better advice than John Jacob Astor when he said, "Buy on the Fringe and wait". In fact, the largest handlers of private funds in the world, banks and insurance companies, have invested in real property. Wouldn't it behoove you as a private individual to do the same thing, to consider most seriously the many proven ways to build a future through real property?

It takes money to make money and the more you invest the more you make. Let the primary and secondary mortgage lenders be your "silent" partners. You invest 15% to 30% in a property and the lenders invest 70% to 85% of their money with you. With the lenders aid you can make double to quadruple on your investment while the lenders are satisfied with their 10% to 15% yearly interest rate. In this manner you can make profits two to four times as great than if you were limited to your own small funds.

Then too, wouldn't it be a comfort to you to know that a large experienced financial firm is looking over your shoulder, advising you, approving your investment and saying, "Don't be afraid, we are putting up 3 to 5 dollars for each dollar you are investing." What other way can you use other peoples money any more honestly or profitably?

Only through real property can you enjoy all of the following benefits:

1. Appreciation, the ever-increasing of value thru inflation. Real Estate has always been the best hedge against inflation.
2. Greatest net cash return on your investment.
3. Depreciation, if income property.
4. The ability to control your own investment. You can't tell a bank or corporation how to run their business.
5. The availibility of Capital Gains tax when held the proper length of time.
6. The opportunity to creatively use your wits. Ingenuity pays off when used to upgrade properties or create new ideas.

Hendersonville is GROWING, more so than many of us realize. Take a day off and ride around on roads and streets you haven't used lately and see signs of PROGRESS everywhere. Better yet, take a small plane flight over the county, particularly during the winter months and see new homes where you never dreamed there were homes.

We are situated in the geographical center of the eastern part of the US, 100,000,000 people within a days drive, the "City of Four Seasons", Retirees' Heaven, New industrial Haven. What more can you ask?

I'm going out on a limb and predicting a solid city from Saluda to Asheville by the year 2000 with Hendersonville the Cultural Center, so lets all band together and keep our City beautiful by proper planning for that future.

Remember, Dollars Never Die, they just fade away so protect yours by investing in Real Estate.

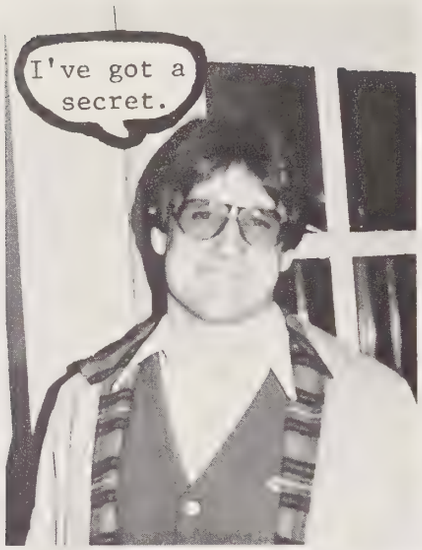
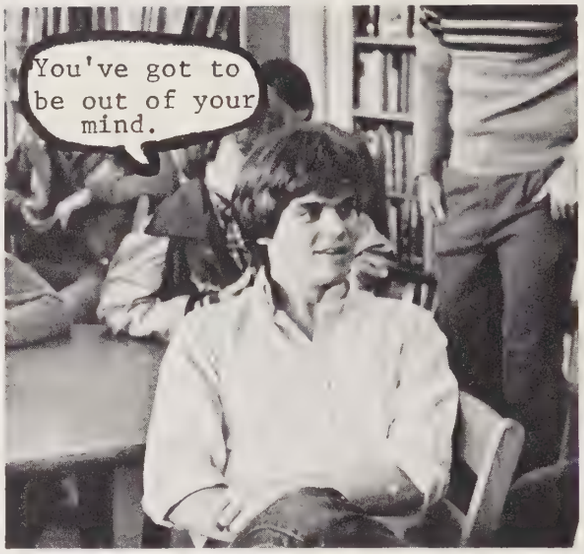
Comedy

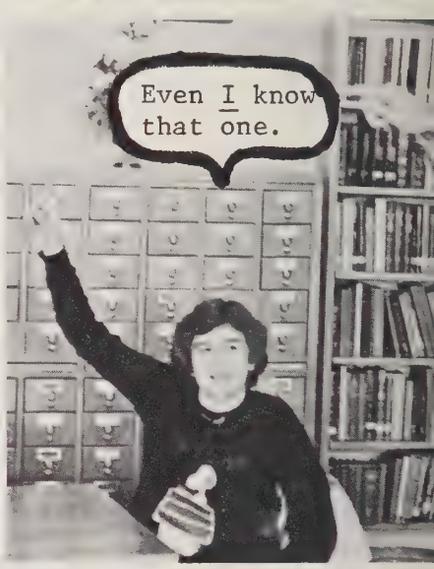
I knew I should have left the party earlier.



I've got a secret.



You've got to be out of your mind.



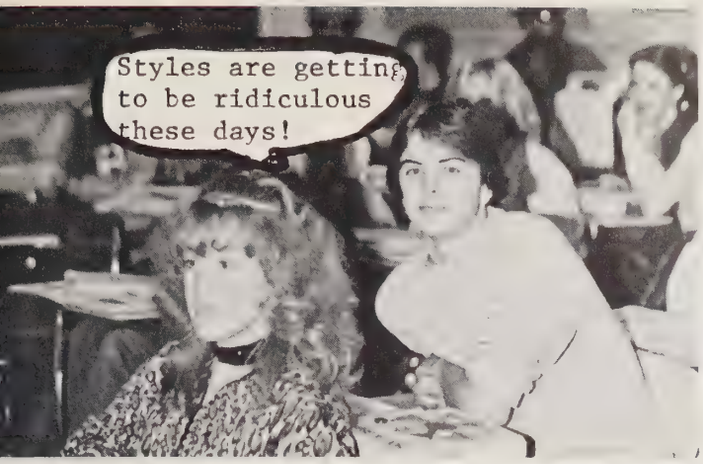
Even I know that one.

En francais classe.

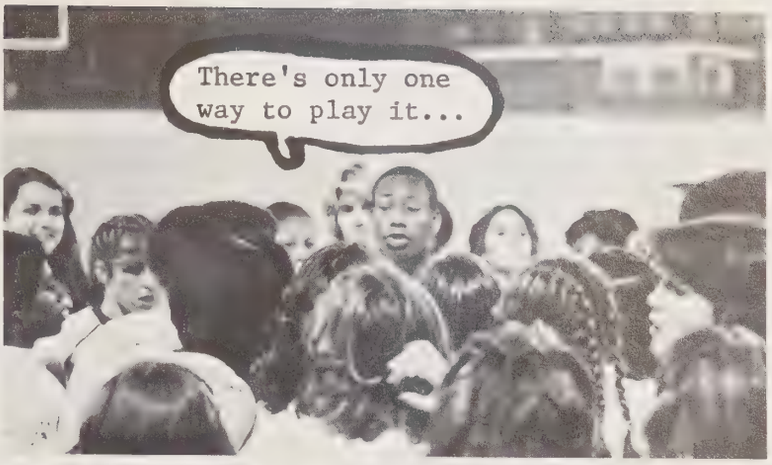
Guess who just walKEd down the hall!

Did you see the biceps on him?

This part is really good.

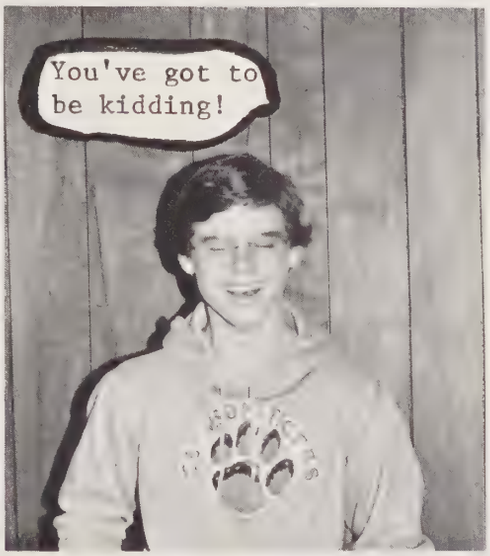


Styles are getting to be ridiculous these days!



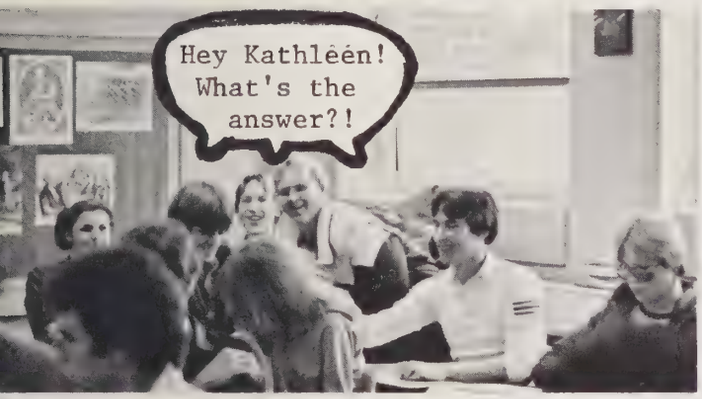
There's only one way to play it...

I'll put you fast to sleep, cause I'm a macho man!!



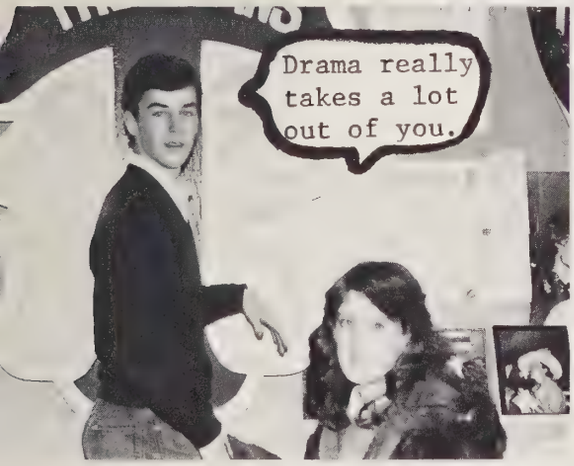
You've got to be kidding!

Hm-he looks pretty good from behind, too.



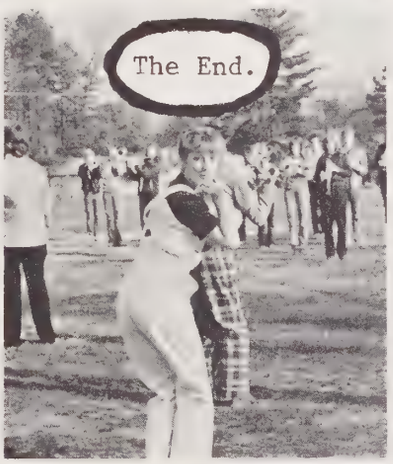
Hey Kathleen! What's the answer?!

Shhh! I'm thinking!



Drama really takes a lot out of you.

Yeah!!I'm tough!



The End.
